Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 17 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Patchy frost and fog overnight, cloudy with sunny spells Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Staying dry with clear skies through the evening and overnight. Risk of patchy frost and fog in the far southwest, before cloud builds across the region from the east towards dawn. Light winds and feeling cold. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Thursday:
A cloudy but largely dry day for most, with lingering low cloud in places. Isolated showers possible for northern coasts, with sunny spells for eastern areas. Mild, with light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Largely dry Friday, with spells of light rain in the east and sunny intervals elsewhere. A bright start to Saturday, then generally cloudy for the weekend with patchy drizzle.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.